

OUR PASSION

People, food and beer.

ARE YOU OUR NEW WAITER?

We are looking for new part-time waiters and bartenders, who wants to be a part of our amazing team. As an employee at Nørrebro Bryghus you will be a part of a dynamic workplace with varying tasks. Easygoing and quality are two words that describes us.

The daily work mainly takes place in our brewhouse at Nørrebro, where we have a beer bar and restaurant, but it will also be possible to work some shifts in our “organic Beer Bar” at Reffen Street Food Market during the summer.

You don't have to be a beer expert when you start, but you have to be ready to engage in an intense learning process about food, beer and service.

The salary is based on the collective agreement.

Send us your application at info@noerrebrobryghus.dk

SUSTAINABILITY

Zero waste and water wastage are important to us, but social responsibility and local engagement are also key elements in our sustainability strategy. We aspire to create an including work environment where everyone feels like home, no matter your sexual preferences, the colour of your skin or the flag in your passport.

ABOUT NØRREBRO BRYGHUS

Since 2003 we have been among the pioneers of the Danish craft beer scene, and the place where organic beer and gastronomy teams up.

In the heart of Nørrebro you find our restaurant and bar, where the magic started almost 20 years ago. We were born in this vibrant part of the city, and Nørrebro is still a vital part of our DNA which are reflected in our food and beer selection.

In the basement you find our beaming BRAW Bar with 21 craft beers on tap, beer & yoga, beer choir and DJ every weekend. In the restaurant upstairs we can serve more than 150 a la carte guests on one night, and arrange company dinners for more than 200 people.

Psst! We serve the best after hour beer :)
